About Morehead

Morehead is located in Rowan County, Kentucky, situated on Interstate-64 in the foothills of beautiful mountain terrain, and serves as the economic, educational, recreational, and cultural hub of the region. Morehead is a small town America with all the progressive conveniences. It is nestled in the heart of the Daniel Boone National Forest, which produces some of the most beautiful hardwoods in the world. The area also features a wide range of housing opportunities. In addition to traditional neighborhoods, there are open farmland properties and private acreage available in the country for home construction, as well as newly-created developments.

Rowan County's educational system was named one of the top 100 school systems

according to a national investigation by Offspring Magazine, published by the Wall Street Journal. Rowan County schools include four elementary (pre-school - fifth grades), one middle school (grades six - eight), and one high school (grades nine - twelve). Gifted/talented education needs are met in a variety of ways including specialized grouping, enrichment within the regular classroom, and Advanced Placement Courses. Also, the middle and high school speech teams are often the top teams in Kentucky. In the past few years, computer technology has been substantially upgraded and furnished within the school system. Over two-thirds of the high school graduates have continued on to college or post-secondary training. Private schooling opportunities are also available through three private, parochial schools: Rowan Christian Academy, Lakeside Christian Academy, and Farmers Christian Academy.

Morehead State University, one of the Top 25 Public Universities in the South, with an enrollment of over 9,500 students, offers over 130 programs of study at the associates, baccalaureate, and graduate levels in four academic colleges, as well as continuing education opportunities.

Beautiful Cave Run Lake, an 8,300-acre recreational lake located within minutes of Morehead in the Daniel Boone Nation Forest, hosts some of the best muskie fishing in the United States. Stunning sunsets enchant campers, fisherman, and boaters. Enthusiasts return time and time again to this exciting, yet relaxing environment offering fun-filled adventures to those of all ages.
